Short History of The Saskatoon Light Infantry (M.G.)

The 105th Regiment, Saskatoon Fusiliers, was created in 1912 with Headquarters in Saskatoon, later becoming part of the Fifth Bn. C.E.F., which proceeded to England with the First Canadian Contingent in 1914.

Upon demobilization of the C.E.F. after the Great War, the Battalion was perpetuated by the First Bn. North Saskatchewan Regiment. In 1924 the name of the Regiment was changed to the Saskatoon Light Infantry.

On the reorganization of the Canadian Militia in 1936 the Regiment became a machine gun unit, with Headquarters and three Companies in Saskatoon and one Company at Melfort, Saskatchewan.

On September 1st, 1939, the Battalion was mobilized as a unit of the C.A.S.F., proceeded under command of Lieut.-Colonel A. E. Potts, E.D., to England, and landed on December 17th, all ranks having volunteered for service overseas.

The Colours which are now presented are the gift of the citizens of Saskatoon.

Order of Ceremony

1. The Regiment will be formed up in three sides of a square facing the Saluting Base.
2. As soon as Her Majesty The Queen arrives at the Saluting Base, the Royal Salute will be given.
3. Her Majesty will inspect the Regiment and then will return to the Saluting Base.
4. The Colours are brought from the rear to the centre of the Regiment. The Colours are uncased.
5. The Consecration will then take place.
6. Her Majesty will present the Colours and address the Regiment.
7. The Colours, turned towards the centre of the square, will be given a General Salute.
8. Three cheers will then be given for Her Majesty The Queen.
9. The Regiment will march past in column of route and march off the parade ground.
10. Her Majesty will leave the parade.

Colonel Scott Dudley, Officers, Warrant Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Saskatoon Light Infantry,

I am very glad of this opportunity of being with you once again. Your fine bearing on Parade to-day shows that you have fully maintained the high standard of efficiency you displayed when last I visited you eighteen months ago

I know that to many of you these months of waiting have seemed very long, and that your thoughts must often have turned to your homes,
and to your wives and families whom you have left in Canada. I know too how much your dear ones must be praying for you, and how they are thinking with pride of the part that you have been called upon to play in guarding these shores. I know you will remember that the defence of this Island is vital no less to those whom you love than to the cause for which you are fighting.

The Colours which I now present to you bear on them the names of battles in which your Regiment fought with honour a quarter of a century ago.

Colours are no longer carried in the field, but they still stand for ideals which have always been sacred to soldiers - pride in their Regiment, devotion to a just cause, and readiness to sacrifice self interest to the service of others.

It is in the knowledge that these ideals
are shared by you all that I place these symbols of your belief in your hands to-day.

I am confident that they are in safe keeping, and I pray that God may bless and protect you all.
